

THE CITY OF CANTON
WILLIAM J. HEALY II, MAYOR

NEWS RELEASE

Office of the Mayor
City Hall - 8th Floor
218 Cleveland Avenue S.W.
Canton, OH 44702

Page 1 of 1

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: Monday, February 22, 2010

Media Contact: Adam Herman
adam.herman@cantonohio.gov

(330) 438-4304 Office
(330) 495-4181 Mobile

ADVISORY: Mayor to announce new crime initiatives TUESDAY

CANTON, Ohio – This Tuesday, Mayor William Healy will announce three new initiatives to increase citizen involvement in law enforcement activities and support neighborhood crime watch groups throughout the city of Canton. The announcement will take place at the Monroe Community Center, located at 2000 3rd St NE in Canton. For more information, contact Adam Herman at (330) 495-4181.

WHO: Mayor William Healy
Chief Dean McKimm, Canton Police Department
Councilwoman Chris Smith (Ward 4) – Chairwoman, Public Safety Committee
Joyce Sumlin, Concerned Citizens of 4th Ward
Representative, Community Coalition Against Violence

WHAT: News conference

WHEN: TUESDAY, February 23, 2010 – 11:00 AM

WHERE: Monroe Community Center
2000 3rd St NE, Canton, OH 44704

WHY: Announcement of new crime initiatives to involve residents in neighborhood policing efforts and increase awareness of crime issues in Canton.

###